

CALAMITOUS-1

CALAMITOUS-1 is a 56 year old Polish-German black marketer who lives in West Berlin but who has a Polish pass which enables him to travel around the DDR. He is remarkably able at slipping through tight squeezes but is a poor, if not bad, security risk because he cannot keep his mouth shut. To date he has been used for spotting Poles and DDR Germans with Polish connections and as a courier in support of other operations. He has been responsible for the recruitment of three apparently good and one doubtful agent. He is paid 200 DM a month, his expenses on trips are paid and he is given varying amounts (depending on his performance) of operational supplies. No policy considerations involved. Subject was originally recruited by [redacted] J. Present case officer is [redacted]

1.

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCE METHOD EXEMPTION 3828
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2006

Continued on page 2
()